Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

The Defense Intelligence School, on behalf of its faculty and students, wishes to express its appreciation to you for your 15 March 1976 address to the National Senior Intelligence Course 1-76 on the topic, "National Security Structure and Functions of the DCI." Your presentation was highly informative and contributed significantly toward the achievement of our teaching objectives.

25X1

The School wishes to thank you for that lecture and sincerely appreciates your continued support of its academic program and training mission.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Senior Training Officer/DCI

SUBJECT : Request for Support by DIS

1. A memorandum from the Defense Intelligence School (DIS) requesting CIA support is attached for your information. I have indicated the area where your organization is involved and the names of individuals shown are those that DIS would like to have participate, if at all possible. Naturally, the dates and personnel shown are tentative, but, upon approval, please confirm them directly to Major Don Malaga (IDS 158-2625 or 158-3019). If changes have to be made, these also should be worked out with Major Malaga.

2. In the future, requests for this type of support will be sent directly to you by DIS. This should save time in processing the request within the Agency and foster more efficient coordination between the parties involved.
